

EMMANUEL GIL

FULL-STACK WEB DEVELOPER

ABOUT ME

I recognize myself as a passionate and motivated individual, whose eagerness is to be part of a business that allows him to learn, gain experience and grow professionally at the same time. Seeking that ambitions, I was brought to the never-ending world of web development, learning new skills and discovering new tools to apply to my projects.

In the work environment, I perform with ease of speech and great teamwork. It has allowed me to managed administrative, gastronomic and sales jobs with an enthusiastic approach, in order to achieve personal and group goals.
